TEAM OF THE DECADES

The Green Bay Packers were the NFL team of the 60's, the Pittsburgh Steelers the team of the 70's and the San Francisco 49ers the team of the 80's. But only one team was dominant throughout the three-decade span. The Raiders — first in Oakland and then in Los Angeles — have been "The Team of the Decades."

The Raiders, winners of three World Championships of Professional Football, are the only team to have been in Super Bowls in the 60's, the 70's and the 80's.

The Raiders are the only original American Football League team to have won a Super Bowl since 1969 and have already done so three times.

The Raiders are the only AFC team to have won a Super Bowl in the 80's — and did so twice.

The Raiders are the only AFC team to have won Super Bowls under more than one head coach.

Since 1963, when Al Davis first took over the failing Oakland franchise that had struggled to win only nine of 42 league games in the initial three seasons of the new American Football League, and pledged to build the finest organization in sports, the Raiders have totally dominated professional football in terms of consistent victory.

During that memorable 27-year span, the Raiders won 257 league games, tied 11 and lost only 126. The Raiders continue to stand alone atop the National Football League with their winning percentage of .671. Commitment to Excellence has never been an idle phrase to those who have proudly represented the Raider organization during the 60's, 70's and 80's.

Equally impressive with their three-decade domination of pro football is the Raiders' long reign as the most successful organization in all of the major professional sports world for more than a quarter-century.

TOP PROFESSIONAL SPORTS RECORDS 1963-1989

Professional Sport	Top Team	Winning Percentage
1. Football	LOS ANGELES RAIDERS	.671
2. Basketball	Boston Celtics	.662
2. Hockey	Montreal Canadiens	.662
4. Baseball	Baltimore Orioles	.558

For three decades the Raiders have continually defied the odds to maintain their unparalleled level of excellence as professional sports' winningest team. Since 1967, when the Raiders won the AFL Championship and went to the Super Bowl in their very first season in the playoffs, the Silver and Black has fought its way into the playoffs 15 times, played in 11 Championship games, won or shared 13 Division Championships and won the American Football League Championship, three American Football Conference Championships and three World Championships of Professional Football.

Seven of the great players who proudly wore Silver and Black have already been enshrined in the Professional Football Hall of Fame. Four different Raider head coaches have already been selected as Pro Football Coach-of-the-Year.

In 1970, as the Raiders began their second decade of play, the merger between the AFL and NFL became a reality on the field. In the 1970-1989 period of interconference play the Raiders have compiled a remarkable 47-23-1 record against present NFC rivals.

Another innovation came to professional football in 1970 — Monday Night Football. The Raiders' total domination of this prime-time ABC television series has seen the Silver and Black build an incredible 27-6-1 record in Monday night play. In the 20 years of this series the Raiders have never lost a Monday Night Football game at home, earning a 12-0-0 record over the two decades.

For their three decades — the 60's, 70's and 80's — the Raiders have had the greatest players, the greatest coaches, the greatest plays and participated in the greatest games in the annals of professional sports.

The past has been glorious but the greatness of the Raiders is in its future. Challengers to Raider domination of professional football will arise in the 1990's as they have in the 60's, the 70's and the 80's. The Raider organization will continue to meet these challenges. In the 90's, as before, the Raiders will continue to be THE TEAM OF THE DECADES.

RAIDER OWNERS

AL DAVIS

President of the General Partner

A total commitment to excellence has marked the three-time World Champion Raiders monumental rise during the last 27 years to the very top of the pro sports world. During these decades of destiny the Raiders battled their way to the best record in professional sports.

In these memorable 27 years the Raiders have had 22 winning seasons, including 16 in a row from 1965 through the 1980 World Championship season.

The astute, fearless leader who charted, then guided the progress of the Raider organization during this challenging quarter-century is owner-president of the general partner, Al Davis.

Davis' 30-year professional football story, from assistant coach of the Chargers, to head coach and general manager of the Raiders, to Commissioner of the American Football League and finally to principal owner and chief executive officer of pro sports' winningest team — the Los Angeles Raiders — is a standard that no one in the history of professional sports can match for winning and excellence.

In April, 1966, the then 36-year old Davis, head coach and general manager of the Raiders, became Commissioner of the American Football League. This was a post he accepted with some reluctance, for first and foremost Al Davis was a football coach, and knew that assuming the commissionership would in all probability mean an end to his coaching career. But AFL owners, needing drive and direction in their battle with the rival National Football League, prevailed on Davis to accept the position. He was described by AFL president Ralph Wilson as, "a coaching genius and astute administrator." AFL owners pointed to his brilliant coaching, recruiting and administrative record and the unique high esteem in which he was held by players, coaches and media throughout the country.

Just eight weeks later, when pro football's two major leagues put an end to their six year war, Davis was acclaimed nationally as the driving force who brought the leagues to the conference table. When the historic merger was completed, Davis resigned his post as AFL Commissioner.

In 1969, he was once again a prime force in the dramatic realignment of professional football when two 13-team conferences — the AFC and NFC — were formed for 1970. He played a vital role in the development of the game as a key participant in the prestigious NFL Competition Committee and, as a member of the NFL Owners Executive Committee, continues to be a major force in the growth and direction of all phases of professional football.

Al Davis first came to the Raiders in January, 1963, dedicated to rescuing the faltering Oakland franchise and building the finest organization in professional sports. Just 33, Davis was the youngest man in pro football to hold the demanding dual positions of head coach and general manager.

But Davis already possessed 14 years coaching experience. He had been tabbed a "young coaching genius" by Sports Illustrated and "the most inventive mind in the country" by Scholastic Coach magazine. The Raiders, with only nine wins in their 42-game history, were failing badly on the field and in the front office and survival of both the franchise and the young league were at stake.

But 1963 saw the start of one of the great rehabilitation jobs in sports history. Introducing a meticulously designed, explosive offense and entirely new concepts in team defense, the Raiders — “picked to finish dead last” — thundered to a 10-4 record and just missed the Division Championship.

Davis was named Coach of the Year by Associated Press, United Press International, Sports Illustrated, Sporting News and his fellow coaches. He became the first sports figure ever honored by the Chamber of Commerce as Oakland's Young Man of the Year. Aside from his deep love of the Raiders, Davis remains vitally interested in all phases of sports, both college and professional, as well as local, national and international events.

Perhaps his most singular honor is having made a record eight presentations of inductees to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. The eight great players to have selected Al Davis to make the presentation speeches on their behalf are Lance Alworth, Jim Otto, George Blanda, Willie Brown, Gene Upshaw, Fred Biletnikoff, Art Shell and Ted Hendricks.

Al Davis was born July 4, 1929, raised in Brockton, Massachusetts, and later in Brooklyn, New York. He attended Wittenberg College and Syracuse University, earning a degree in English while playing football, basketball and baseball.

In 1950, he was named line coach at Adelphi College in New York. His innovative technical football articles published in the leading coaching magazines gained him wide attention and acclaim. He then went into the Army, being assigned as head football coach at Ft. Belvoir, Virginia. There he molded a national power service team and capped one season by defeating the University of Maryland, national collegiate champions, in a squad game.

Davis served on the staff of the NFL's Baltimore Colts in 1954, at age 24, concentrating on player personnel work. During 1955-56, he was line coach and chief recruiter at The Citadel. He then spent three years at the University of Southern California as line coach. In 1959, Davis also was in charge of defense at USC.

In 1960, head coach Sid Gillman hired Davis as offensive end coach of the newly formed Los Angeles Chargers. There Davis developed the most feared and imitated passing attack in football and kept the Chargers in the very forefront in the fight for college talent. From the Chargers in Los Angeles, and then in San Diego, it was on to successfully meet the challenges with the Raiders in Oakland in 1963 and then in Los Angeles in 1982.

ART SHELL Head Coach

Art Shell enters his second season as head coach of the Los Angeles Raiders in 1990 and 23rd year with the organization. A 1989 inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Shell was named head coach of the Silver and Black by Raiders President of the General Partner Al Davis after the fourth game of the 1989 National Football League season.

"Art Shell represents pride and poise, has always had quality, self-esteem and dignity," said Davis on October 3, 1989, the date of Shell's elevation as head coach of the Silver and Black, after having served as an assistant coach for the previous seven seasons.

Shell joined the Raider coaching staff in 1983 after retiring as an active player following 15 memorable seasons as one of the greatest offensive tackles in professional football history.

Said Shell during the announcement of his hiring: "We're about winning. We're going to put the players in a position to win. We've had great players here, great coaches. And I plan on following in that tradition of being a great coach."

In Art Shell's debut as head coach on October 9, 1989, before a sellout crowd and a Monday night national television audience, the Raiders beat the New York Jets, 14-9. The Raiders went 7-5-0 in Shell's first year, including a 6-0-0 record at home in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

Now 43 years old and the youngest head coach in the National Football League, Shell was a Pro Bowl selection eight times — the most of any Raider — during a playing career that spanned three decades — the 60's, 70's and 80's.

During his playing career the Raiders had a league record of 150-56-7, made the playoffs 11 times and won two World Championships of Professional Football.

Art Shell was the starting left tackle for the Raiders in both of these Super Bowl victories — Super Bowl XI after the 1976 season when the Raiders downed the Minnesota Vikings, 32-14, in the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, California and again in Super Bowl XV after the 1980 season when the Raiders defeated the Philadelphia Eagles, 27-19, in the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans.

Shell, who combined massize size (6-5, 285 pounds), with speed, agility, pride and poise, earned his third Super Bowl ring as an assistant coach when the Raiders beat the Washington Redskins, 38-9, in Super Bowl XVIII in Tampa Stadium.

Arthur Shell Jr. was born November 26, 1946 in Charleston, South Carolina. At Bonds-Wilson High School in North Charleston he was All-State in football as a center and defensive tackle and All-State in basketball as a center.

A member of the South Carolina Hall of Fame, Art Shell attended Maryland State College (now Maryland-Eastern Shore), graduating in 1968 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Industrial Arts.

He was a three-time All-Conference tackle on both offense and defense, from 1965 through 1967, and an All-America selection in both 1966 and 1967. He also lettered two seasons in basketball.

Art Shell began his professional football career in 1968 as a third round draft choice of the Oakland Raiders. He went on to play in 207 league games, third most in Raider history behind fellow Raider Hall of Famers Gene Upshaw's 217 games and Jim Otto's 210 games. Shell also participated in 23 postseason contests for the Silver and Black, from 1968 through 1982.

Shell played in 156 consecutive league games from 1968 through 1978 before a knee injury in a 1979 preseason game caused him to miss the first five games of the 1979 season — the only games he missed during 15 years of play. He then played in an additional 51 straight NFL games before retiring after the 1982 season.

The Shell family consists of wife Janice and sons Arthur III, 16, and Christopher, 14.

Art Shell is the ninth head coach in the 31-year history of the Raider organization. Since 1966, when Al Davis returned to the Silver and Black as Managing General Partner, after serving as Commissioner of the American Football League, the Raiders have had only four other head coaches — John Rauch (1966-1968), John Madden (1969-1978), Tom Flores (1979-1987) and Mike Shanahan (1988-1989).

For each of these men, as with Art Shell, the Raider job was their first as a head coach.

DAVE ADOLPH

Defense, Linebackers

Dave Adolph, now in his 28th year of coaching in the NFL and college football, joined the Raiders staff in February, 1989. Adolph, 53, served as defensive coordinator for the Cleveland Browns from 1986-88. He began his NFL coaching career with the Browns in 1979, spending six years there thru 1984. The Akron, Ohio native joined the staff of the San Diego Chargers in 1985, then returned to the Cleveland organization in 1986. Adolph played guard and linebacker at the University of Akron and entered coaching in 1962 at Cleveland's Shaw High after three years as an officer in the Air Force. He joined the Akron staff in 1966 and coached at Connecticut, Kentucky, Illinois and Ohio State before joining the Browns. Adolph and his wife Betty have four sons and one daughter.

FRED BILETNIKOFF

Wide Receivers

Fred Biletnikoff rejoined the Raiders in February, 1989 after having previously played 14 seasons for the Silver and Black. The 47-year-old Pro Football Hall of Famer coached wide receivers for Calgary in the CFL in 1987, 88. He coached for two USFL teams — Arizona in 1986 and Oakland in 1985 and coached at Diablo Valley J.C. in 1984, Palomar J.C. in 1983, Orange Glen High in 1982, and with Montreal in 1980. He played in 190 games as a Raider and was MVP in Super Bowl XI. The Erie, Pennsylvania native is the Raiders all-time leading receiver with 589 career catches and holds Raider records in receiving yards and receiving touchdowns. He played in three AFL title games, five AFC championships and in Super Bowls II and XI. He played in two AFL All-Star games and four Pro Bowls after joining the Raiders as a second round draft choice in 1965 from Florida State.

SAM GRUNEISEN

Linebackers

Sam Gruneisen, 49, who joined the Raiders in 1987, has 24 seasons of coaching and pro playing experience. The Louisville, Kentucky native was defensive coordinator at San Jose State in 1986 after two years as offensive line coach with the L.A. Express of the USFL in 1984-85, two years as offensive line coach at the University of California in 1982-83 and one at Grossmont College in 1981, preceded by three seasons of high school coaching in San Diego and a business career. A tight end and linebacker at Villanova University where he earned a degree in mathematics, Gruneisen was drafted by San Diego in 1961 and played center 11 years for the Chargers, 1962-72, finishing with Houston in 1973. Gruneisen and his wife Barbara have two sons and one daughter.

KIM HELTON

Offensive Line

Kim Helton joined the Raiders in February, 1990 after four seasons as offensive line coach with the Houston Oilers. The 41-year-old Helton began his NFL coaching career in 1983 with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he served as offensive line coach through 1986. A native of Pensacola, Florida, Helton was a three-year starter at center for the University of Florida (1967-69), earning Offensive Most Valuable Player honors as a senior. After graduating with a degree in physical education, Helton coached at Eastside High in Gainesville, Florida from 1970-71 before joining the Florida staff as a graduate assistant in 1972. He became a full-time assistant the following year handling Florida's offensive line, remaining through 1978 before serving as offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at the University of Miami for four seasons (1979-82). The Helton family includes wife Pamela and two sons.

AL LoCASALE

Executive Assistant

Now in his fourth decade in charge of the Raider administration, Al LoCasale first joined the organization in Oakland in 1969. Prior to that LoCasale had served as Director of Player Personnel for the San Diego Chargers and the Cincinnati Bengals.

LoCasale is an original American Football League executive, having been with the Los Angeles Chargers when professional football's most successful new league started in 1960. After seven years with the Chargers that included five Division Championships and an AFL Championship, LoCasale was the first employee hired by the Cincinnati Bengals in 1967 when Pro Football Hall of Fame member Paul Brown was awarded that new expansion franchise. With Cincinnati LoCasale built the player personnel system that provided the talent nucleus that helped the Bengals become the only NFL expansion team ever to win a division championship in just its third season of play.

During his 38 years in football — 22 with the Raider organization — LoCasale has served as administrative assistant to the head football coach at the University of Southern California before joining the Chargers. He coached at the University of Pennsylvania — his alma mater — and at the U.S. Naval Training Center at Bainbridge, Maryland while on active duty in the Navy, in addition to coaching in high school in Philadelphia.

LoCasale has done extensive work in both radio and television broadcasting since the early sixties and is the author of a number of books and periodicals. Within the National Football League, LoCasale is a founding member of the NFL Working Executives Group, serves on the Board of Directors of both NFL Properties and NFL Films and is a representative of the Raiders on the NFL Executive Committee and the NFL Management Council.

The LoCasale family includes wife Jananne and sons Nicholas, 11, and Alexander, 7.

THE LOS ANGELES RAIDERS NEWSPAPER

The Raiders Newspaper, an informative addition to the football scene, now in its third season, will again provide Raider fans everywhere with a special insider's look at professional sports' winningest team. This colorful tabloid newspaper — by the Raiders, about the Raiders, for Raider fans — began publication at the start of the 1988 season.

The Raiders Newspaper, published by Weston Communications, will again have 20 issues per year, with a minimum of 24 pages per issue. A one-year subscription is only $32 and can be obtained by sending check or money order, made payable to Raider Subscriptions, to Raiders Newspaper, 85 Old Long Ridge Road, Stamford, CT 06903. Subscribers can also use their VISA or MasterCard by calling 203/329-2000.

Executive editor of the newspaper is Raider executive assistant Al LoCasale, with Raider publications director Mike Taylor serving as contributing editor. Top football writers and photographers, nationally and locally, also contribute material to keep the Raiders Newspaper current, comprehensive, colorful — and often controversial.

WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP RINGS

The Raiders World Championship rings — awarded to players, coaches, staff and owners after the dominating victories in Super Bowl XI, Super Bowl XV and Super Bowl XVIII — are renowned as the most memorable pieces of championship team jewelry ever produced. The rings were produced by Lenox Awards of St. Charles, Illinois, whose staff developed creative concepts incorporating the explicit guidelines established by the Raiders — white gold, a raised football-shaped crest of diamonds on a black surface and a design based on “massive excellence” that would recognize these crowning achievements by the Raider organization.

The Super Bowl XVIII ring design features three large diamonds to represent the three World Championships won within eight years, each centered in a football-shaped crest plus an additional 20 five-point diamonds. The ring was developed by Raider Managing General Partner Al Davis, Head Coach Tom Flores, Executive Assistant Al LoCasale and Lenox Awards President Tom Marzullo.

The Super Bowl XI ring design, featuring a large center diamond and 26 five-point diamonds on the ring face was developed by Raider Managing General Partner Al Davis, Head Coach John Madden, Executive Assistant Al LoCasale and Lenox Awards artist Elliot Ingberg.

The Super Bowl XV ring design, featuring two large center diamonds to symbolize the two World Championships won within five years, and 33 five-point diamonds on the ring face, was developed by Raider Managing General Partner Al Davis, Head Coach Tom Flores, Executive Assistant Al LoCasale and Lenox Awards President Tom Brasher.

UNPROTECTED FREE AGENTS SIGNED BY RAIDERS

In the second year of the "Plan B" free agency system that began February 1, 1990 and concluded Sunday, April 1, 1990, the Los Angeles Raiders signed eight veteran free agents that had not been "protected" by their previous NFL clubs. During the same period the Raiders lost four players they had not placed on their 37-man protected list.

Name	Pos.	Age	Exp.	College	Old Club
Brown, Ron	CB	29	7	Arizona St.	L.A. Rams
Burton, Ron	LB	25	4	No. Carolina	Phoenix
Campbell, Joe	LB	23	3	New Mex. St.	San Diego
FitzPatrick, James	T	26	5	So. Calif.	San Diego
Klostermann, Bruce	LB	26	4	So. Dakota St.	Denver
Montoya, Max	G	33	12	UCLA	Cincinnati
Patterson, Elvis	CB	29	7	Kansas	San Diego
Streeter, George	S	22	2	Notre Dame	Chicago

All eight of the new Raiders were active with their respective clubs in 1989. Max Montoya was a Pro Bowl choice last year — his third appearance in the last four seasons. Ron Brown was a Pro Bowl selection after the 1985 season.

NFL PASSER RATING SYSTEM

The NFL rates its forward passers for statistical purposes against a pre-fixed performance standard based on statistical achievements of all qualified pro passers since 1960. The system now being used replaced one that rated passers in relation to their position in a total group based on various criteria. The current system, which was adopted in 1973, removes inequities that existed in the former method and, at the same time, provides a means of comparing passing performances from one season to the next.

It is important to remember that the system is used to rate passers, not quarterbacks. Statistics do not reflect leadership, play-calling, and other intangible factors that go into making a successful professional quarterback. Four categories are used as a basis for compiling a rating:

- Percentage of touchdown passes per attempt
- Percentage of completions per attempt
- Percentage of interceptions per attempt
- Average yards gained per attempt

The base, or average standard, is 1.000. The bottom is .000. To earn a 2.000 rating a passer must perform at exceptional levels, i.e., 70 percent in completions, 10 percent in touchdowns, 1.5 percent in interceptions, and 11 yards average gain per pass attempt. The maximum a passer can receive in any category is 2.375.

For example, to gain a 2.375 in completion percentage, a passer would have to complete 77.5 percent of his passes. The NFL record is 70.55 by Ken Anderson (Cincinnati, 1982). To gain 2.375 in percentage of interceptions, a passer would have to go the entire season without an interception. The 2.375 figure in average yards is 12.50, compared with the NFL record of 11.17 by Tommy O'Connell (Cleveland, 1957). To earn a 2.375 in percentage of touchdowns, a passer would have to achieve an 11.9. The record is 13.9 by Sid Luckman (Chicago, 1943).

In order to make the rating more understandable, the point rating is then converted into a scale of 100. For instance, if a passer completes 11 of 23 passes for 114 yards, with one touchdown and no interceptions, the four components would be:

—Percentage of Completions—11 of 23 is 47.8 percent. The point rating is 0.890.

—Percentage of Touchdown Passes—1 touchdown in 23 attempts works out to 4.3 percent for a rating of 0.860.

—Percentage of Interceptions—You can't do better than zero, so the passer receives a maximum rating of 2.375.

—Average Yards Gained Per Attempt—23 attempts divided into 114 yards equals 4.96 yards per attempt for a corresponding rating of 0.490.

The sum of the four components is 4.615, which converts to a rating of 76.9. In order for a passer to achieve 100, his points would have to total 6.000. In rare cases, where statistical performance has been superior, it is possible for a passer to go over 100. However, such an instance is rare. The leading passers each year were checked from 1932 when the NFL began keeping official statistics, and only 10 passers in history have scored over 100 in the year they led the league in passing. The most recent passer to lead the league and score over 100 was San Francisco quarterback Joe Montana, who achieved an NFL-record 112.4 rating in 1989.

Instant Replay Approved for 1990

For the fifth consecutive season, NFL clubs have approved a limited system of Instant Replay on a one-year basis.

There is one significant change in the system from 1989. All replay reviews which involve contact to the field from the Replay Booth will be a maximum of two minutes in duration, timed from the moment when the Umpire signals timeout.

The Replay Official will be assigned to a regular officiating crew and will attend crew meetings the day before each game.

The following table outlines the number of reversals and plays closely reviewed by instant replay in each of the previous four seasons.

	Games	Reversals	Plays Closely Reviewed
1986	224	38	374
1987	210	57	490
1988	224	53	537
1989	224	65	492

In 1986, the system was approved by a 23-4-1 vote. In 1987, the vote was 21-7. In 1988, replay was cleared by a 23-5 margin. In 1989, the vote was 24-4. In 1990, the vote was 21-7.

The NFL has discussed Instant Replay in some degree or other since the early 1970s. The League experimented in 1976 and 1978 using two basic frameworks—an independent system using cameras, replay machines, and technicians separate from the network covering the games, and a “no-frills” approach using existing TV coverage.

In 1985, the NFL used the network feed of the nine nationally-televised preseason games to experiment with the basic system which later was adopted for 1986, 1987, and 1988. A total of 28 plays (17 confirmed calls, 4 inconclusive, 1 reversed, and 6 no replay shown) were closely examined in the 1985 experiment.

Q—What is the objective of this system?

A—The clubs feel that on certain plays the telecast viewed by the general public should be used to correct an indisputable error. The system will be used to reverse an on-field decision only when the Replay Official has indisputable visual evidence available to him that warrants the change.

Q—Who will be involved?

A—The Replay Official (a former NFL or collegiate official) will be positioned in a sideline Replay Booth, which will house two TV monitors and two high-speed VCRs plus radio communications to the on-field officials. The Replay Official makes the decision although a Communicator (normally a member of the League Office staff) and a Technician also will be there to lend logistical help.

Q—Why is the system referred to as “limited” Instant Replay?

A—This system will concentrate on plays of possession or touching (e.g. fumbles, receptions, interceptions, muffs) and most plays governed by the sidelines, goal lines, end lines, and line of scrimmage (e.g. receiver or runner in or out of bounds, forward or backward passes, breaking the plane of the goal line). It also will be used to determine whether there are more than 11 men on the field.

Q—Why aren't most fouls included in this system?

A—It is recognized that in most circumstances the on-field officials have the best vantage points involving fouls. It is for this reason that Instant Replay will not review a list of the following 26 fouls:

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 1. Clipping                                     | 14. Illegally kicking ball                 |

Q—Is the television network carrying the game part of the review process?

A—No. Although the Replay Official will be viewing the live network feed, there is no communication to television personnel as to which plays to show or not to show. The Replay Official does not hear the TV commentators.

Q—What is the step-by-step procedure of a play review?

A—The Replay Official will view game action and a play will be replayed immediately on one of the two monitors, while the other one continues to record the live feed.

The Replay Official makes a determination if further study of the play is needed. If not, there is no contact with the field and play continues without interruption.

If the Replay Official believes an error may have been made the Umpire will be contacted via a headset.

The Replay Official will watch replay(s) on one or both monitors and complete his review within a reasonable period after the play is over.

The Replay Official will inform the Umpire of his decision, and the Referee will make the appropriate announcement on the wireless microphone.

Raiders run Monday Night Football record to 27-6-1. December 3 — Raiders defeat Denver Broncos 16-13 in overtime before 90,016, largest ticket count in NFL in 1989.

1990

January 27 — Former 15-year pro linebacker Ted Hendricks, who wore the Silver and Black from 1975 thru 1983, becomes seventh Raider voted into Pro Football Hall of Fame. April 22 — Raiders select Arizona defensive end Anthony Smith in first round of college player draft. August 4 — Former Raider linebacker Ted Hendricks inducted into Pro Football Hall of Fame in ceremony in Canton, Ohio, with presentation speech made by Raider Owner Al Davis. August 5 — Raiders play New Orleans Saints in historic Wembley Stadium in London, England in first Raider preseason game ever in a foreign country.

RAIDERS RADIO NETWORK

Local, regional and national rights to Los Angeles Raiders radio broadcasts are held jointly by Bob Speck Productions, a Los Angeles firm headed by veteran sports broadcast packaging executive Bob Speck, and by KFI Radio-AM 640.

Speck Productions has met increasing demand for Raider football by developing a still-growing radio network involving more than three dozen stations in 13 states to air Raider action throughout California and the Western United States.

Los Angeles Raiders broadcasts originate on KFI (AM 640), flagship station for the Raider Radio Network. KFI, owned and operated by Cox Enterprises, is headed by Vice President and General Manager Howard Neal. The 50,000 watt KFI, a pioneering Southern California radio symbol with one of the most powerful signals in the entire United States, provides the Raiders with enviable coverage throughout the primary California market and much of the West.

Bill King, highly-acclaimed radio voice of the Raiders since 1966, will again handle play-by-play, plus pregame and postgame commentary, for the 25th consecutive season. King enters the 1990 season having already broadcast 499 Raider games (116 preseason, 352 league and 31 postseason games). Rich Marotta, winner of nine Golden Mike Awards, will supply color commentary and analysis for Raider Radio for the ninth year. Throughout the week, as well as on game days, KFI Sports Director Chris Roberts will air special Raider news and features. A new addition to the Raider Radio team in 1990 will be 16-year NFL veteran quarterback Jim Plunkett, Heisman Trophy winner at Stanford University, Most Valuable Player as the Raiders won the World Championship of Professional Football in Super Bowl XV against the Philadelphia Eagles and again the winning quarterback as the Raiders won Super Bowl XVIII against the Washington Redskins. Plunkett, a nine-year Raider star, will be featured on the "Raider Talk" segment of the pregame and postgame shows, among other appearances. Veteran Raider executive assistant Al LoCasale and KFI's Chris Roberts will pair up again to do "Inside Raider Football" before every Raider game.

Game-day coverage of the Raiders on 50,000 watt KFI Radio begins three hours before kickoff. Extended after-game programming will include "Raider Recap," "The Locker Room Show," "Raider Scoreboard," "Raider Fifth Quarter," "Raider Replay," "NFL Scoreboard" and "Raider Talk." A full eight hours of Raider football on game days of the Silver and Black — from 10:00 am for a 1:00 pm game, until closeout at 6:00 pm.

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

Tie-Breaking Procedures

The following procedures will be used to break standings ties for postseason playoffs and to determine regular-season schedules.

To Break a Tie Within a Division

If, at the end of the regular season, two or more clubs in the same division finish with identical won-lost-tied percentages, the following steps will be taken until a champion is determined.

Two Clubs

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games between the clubs).

2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.

3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.

4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, if applicable.

5. Best net points in division games.

6. Best net points in all games.

7. Strength of schedule.

8. Best net touchdowns in all games.

9. Coin toss.

Three or More Clubs

(Note: If one team wins multiple-team tiebreaker to advance to playoff round, remaining teams revert to step 1 of applicable two-club format, i.e., either in division tiebreaker or Wild Card tiebreaker. If two teams in a multiple-team tie possess superior marks in a tiebreaking step, this pair of teams revert to top of applicable two-club format to break tie. One team advances to playoff round, while other returns to original group and step 1 of applicable tiebreaker).

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games among the clubs).

2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.

3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.

4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.

5. Best net points in division games.

6. Best net points in all games.

7. Strength of schedule.

8. Best net touchdown in all games.

9. Coin toss.

To Break a Tie for the Wild Card Team

If it is necessary to break ties to determine the three Wild Card clubs from each conference, the following steps will be taken.

1. If the tied clubs are from the same division, apply division tiebreaker.

2. If the tied clubs are from different divisions, apply the following steps.

Two Clubs

1. Head-to-head, if applicable.

2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.

3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.

4. Best average net points in conference games.

5. Best net points in all games.

6. Strength of schedule.

7. Best net touchdowns in all games.

8. Coin toss.
